Comment

Considering a rating of 7 as the threshold at and above which participants score themselves as 'confident':

Pre-session		Post-session	In terms of % gains
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Only one participant felt confident about CEFs</li> <li>Just over half of participants felt confident 'knowing what SLCN is'</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All descriptors were rated as 7 or higher in terms of confidence</li> <li>The most significant gains were for descriptor D</li> </ul>	A	89%↑
			B	44.5%↑
			C	100%↑
			D	100%↑
			E	89%↑
			F	100%↑

B. Qualitative feedback

Q 1: what was most useful for you today

Recurrent themes:

- Talking through things
- Breaking down where the language issue/barrier is – identifying the problem
- Great bank of resources
- Assessment tools and resource pack
- The lead-up to the speech chart – so interesting
- Being able to discuss these factors
- Having information explained rather than just 'thrown at us'
- The whole process – being explained to allow a clearer approach
- Clear explanations about all aspects and breaking it all down

Q 2: what strategy/approach are you most excited to try?

- Tracking a toy across my face for 'look at me'
- Making better use of the visual timetable! +++
- Task boards and whole-class observations and strategies
- Assessment tools for observing the whole class to be able to recognise SLCN

Q 3: what will you share with colleagues today?

Recurrent themes:

- Resources
- Strategies
- New strategies and ideas we can implement
- Ideas
- Consistency throughout school
- Everything!

Additional general comments

- Super-helpful and informative – thank you
- I would also love more support for speech intervention too now
- A very helpful day – part-refresher and part finding out new things
- Thank you
